Program: MS Business Analytics Date: 10/15/20
Learning Goal: 3. Students who graduate will be

4. Document below your evaluation of current LO assessment data compared to the benchmark and the need for new improvement actions. Consider not just the overall average LO score but also score on individual traits shown in the Assessment Report and derived from the LO rubric.

The assessment results are favorable. Students indeed are eager to apply data analysis to actual business problems in various business functions. All 15 students in the sample met the expectations of LO3 in all traits. They are capable of making effective business decisions and recommendations based on the findings of their data analyses.

There is always room for improvement. Particularly, the depth of data analysis can go a long way in generating more useful and robust business insights. The program intends to introduce more challenging ways of assessing LO3.

The program will also revise the rubrics of LO3 assessment to improve measurability, comparability and consistency.

5. Record below a list of recommended course-level or programmatic actions to improve student learning or the AOL process.
 - a. Sort the list from most recommended to least.
