

Students transferring with a GPA of 2.0 ("C") or higher may use education coursework from other institutions to meet graduation requirements for the first semester after transfer, although this may be used only once.

