

(Does NOT apply to any of the campuses of the University of California [UC] System)

To obtain a bachelor's degree from any of the California State University campuses, students are required to complete a minimum of 48 semester units in general education courses in the following areas: Area A - nine (9) units; Area B - twelve (12) units; Area C - twelve (12) units; Area D - ~~Q (L Q) units~~; Area E - three (3) units. ~~D Q G $ U HUP to 39~~ lower-division units may be completed at and certified by California Community Colleges. After the student has transferred, the CSU campus will then specify a minimum of 9 more upper division units to be taken primarily in Areas B, C and D.

Students admitted to a CSU campus with full certification may not be held to any additional lower-division general education requirements; students admitted to a CSU campus with Subject-area certification may not be held to any additional lower-division general education coursework in the subject areas certified. Neither full certification nor subject area certification exempts students from unmet lower-division graduation requirements that may exist outside of the general education program of the campus awarding the degree.
