

College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences

ASSESSMENT PLAN: B.S. Criminal Justice

Date Updated: Spring 2022

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES (PLOs)
Students graduating with a B.S. in Criminal Justice will be able to:
PLO 1	Think critically and creatively and apply analytical and quantitative reasoning to address complex problems
PLO 2	Communicate Ideas, perspectives, and values clearly and persuasively while listening openly to others.
PLO 3	Apply Knowledge of diversity and multicultural competencies to promote equity and social justice in our communities
PLO 4	Act responsibly and sustainably at local, national, and global levels
PLO 5	Demonstrate expertise and integration of ideas, methods, theory and practice in a specialized discipline of study.
PLO 6	Apply appropriate knowledge and skills necessary for a vital career in criminal justice and related professions.

Year 1: 2018-2019
1. Which PLO(s) to assess	PLO 1 and PLO 2
2. Is it aligned to an ILO?	Yes
3. If yes, list ILO.	Communication
4. Course name and number	CRJ 320 Research Methods; CRJ 340 Advanced Criminal Investigations; CRJ 415 Internship; CRJ 460 Crime Theory
5. SLO from course	CRJ 320: Explain and apply the research process beginning with statement of the problem, research design, data collection, analysis of data, interpretation and results. CRJ 340: Explain the fundamental nature of investigative interviewing, and analyze (or design) an interview utilizing the principles of a competent interview CRJ 415: Process the internship experience to articulate and market oneself to prospective employers CRJ 460: Analyze the implications of various crime theories and corresponding policies from race, class, and gender perspectives

6. Assessment activity	Secondary assessment of group assignments and presentation
7. Assessment Instrument Tf1 0 0 1	