It takes a while when we are speaking, To find the words that we are seeking It's called aphasia, but we keep going This land was made for you and me

Now with aphasia, we may speak differently Don't let it phase ya, we're smart and funny We are supported, we stand united This land's still great for you and me

The choir looks forward to a yearly June concert to promote National Aphasia Awareness month. ^aThey tak particular pride in knowing that they have beenceden for other aphasia choirs emerging across the opanti

See the Aphasia Tones rendition of $\int s_{-1}n \int s$ Your $_{-1}n \int s$ (aphasia awareness lyrics at 2:10), courtesy of California State University-East Bay.